“HEALING TOUCH”

Debbie Russell, RN, OCN, HTCP

Oncology Nurse, Baltimore Washington Medical Center

This presentation is on the personal merits of being generally aware of our energy field, and the interactive merits of being open and present energetically. A demonstration on Healing Touch will be provided. The participant will also experience a self Chakra connection.

“How to Communicate” When to Call the Nurse

Murt Foos, RN

Clinical Staff Educator, Delaware Hospice

Communication is critical in all health care situations but is of special significance at the end of life. This session will be an overview of the importance of good communication with the patient and when to call the nurse.

ABOUT THE HOSPICE & PALLIATIVE CARE NETWORK OF MARYLAND

The Hospice & Palliative Care Network of Maryland is a non-profit organization which promotes quality hospice care, acts as an advocate for the terminally ill, and promotes the hospice concept of providing compassionate, multi-disciplinary care to patients and their families. It provides professional education, a forum for the exchange of ideas in end-of-life care, works with state and federal agencies, and acts as a liaison to national, state and local hospice organizations.
