Hosts

Hospice 102

Wednesday, February 25, 2009

Comfort Inn BWI

6921 Baltimore Annapolis Blvd., Baltimore, MD. 21225

This highly interactive day is geared to the hospice health care provider who wants to explore pain and symptom management more deeply. Using a case-based approach, course facilitators will engage the audience in a critical thinking process to treat common pain syndromes seen at end of life, and a wide spectrum of non-pain symptoms. These will include pain and cardiovascular, pulmonary and dementia failure to thrive symptoms.
